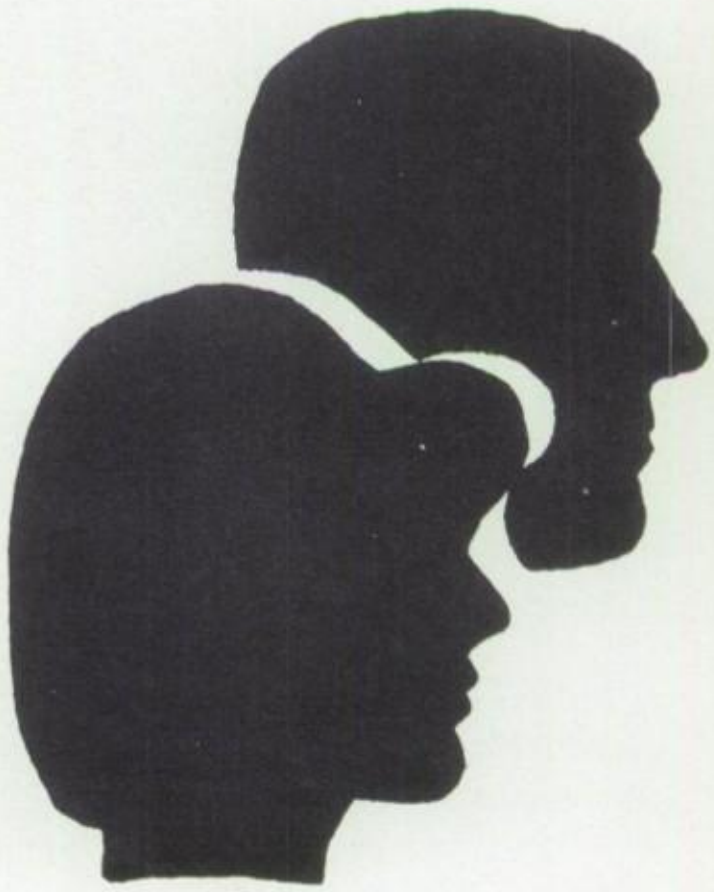
Bishop Francis Kelley

As Bishop Kelley graduates its second class of "four year men," it is evident to all that it has established itself as one of Tulsa's finer educational institutions. While Bishop Kelley makes plans to push forward to greater heights, it is well to remember and appreciate those whose work in the past and now have made Kelley what it is today. In establishing Kelley they have laid a firm foundation for an even greater Kelley in the future.

First to be remembered is Bishop Kelley. A founding Bishop of the Diocese, writer, and founder of Extension Society, he encouraged Catholic education and a meaningful Catholic life.

It is from him that Bishop Kelley High School took its name in the belief that the school will continue and increase the spirit engendered by Bishop Kelley.

But a Bishop cannot work alone. The laymen and women of the diocese of Tulsa, especially the parents of Kelley students, made the high school possible with their support—a support which they continue to give in spite of personal sacrifices necessary.

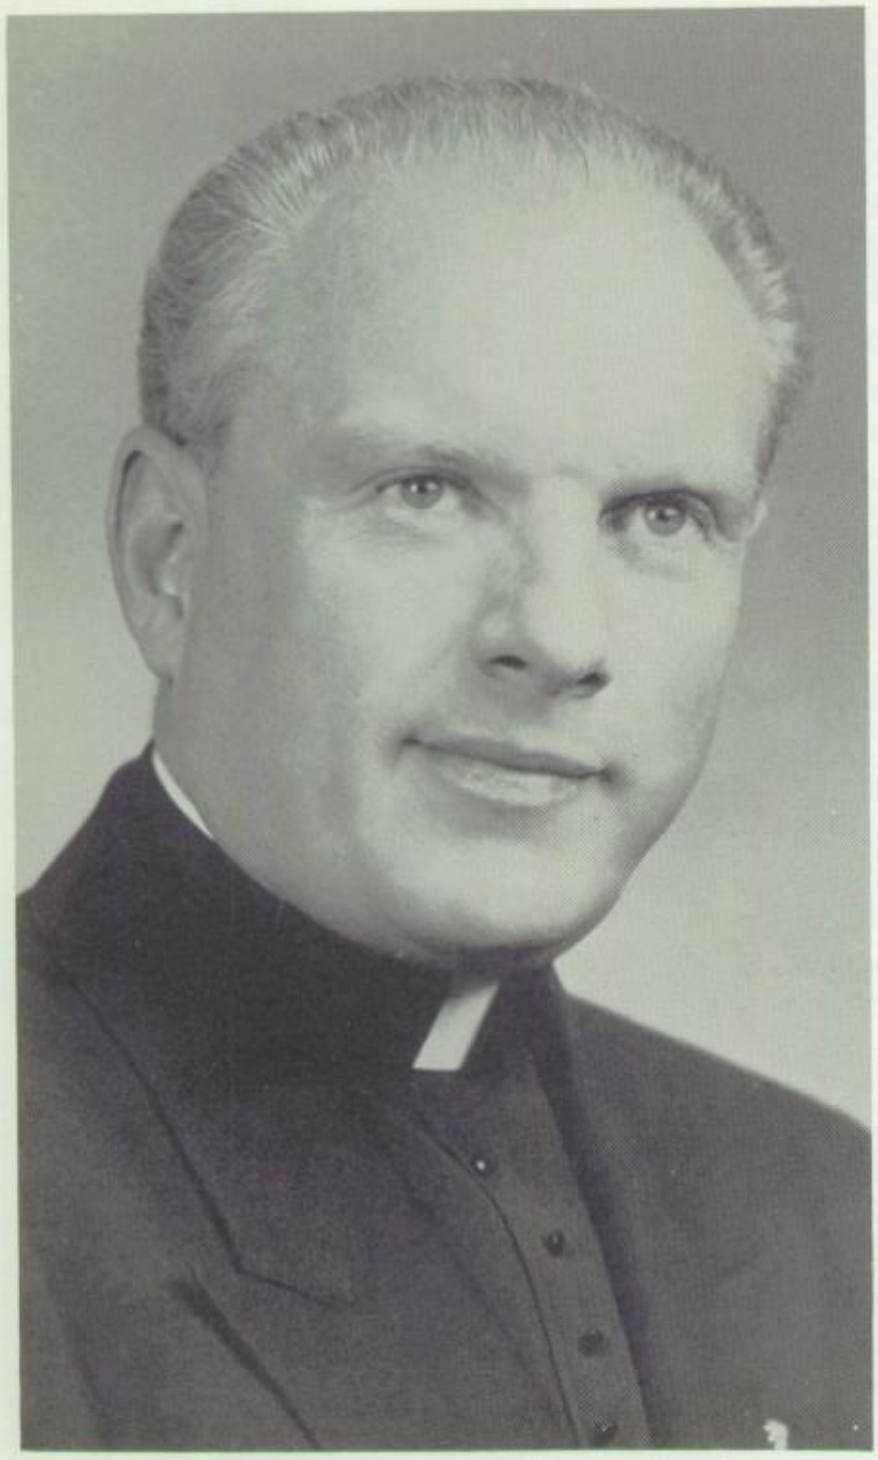


Most Reverend Bishop Victor J. Reed

Bishop Reed saw to completion the school envisioned by Bishop McGuinness. His interest in the understanding and promulgation of Catholic principles has been shown by his continual support of Kelley. This interest in making religion an active force in men's lives was recognized this year by a national citation for promoting brotherhood awarded by the National Conference of Christian and Jews. Congratulations, Bishop Reed, on a well deserved honor.

Diocesan Administrators

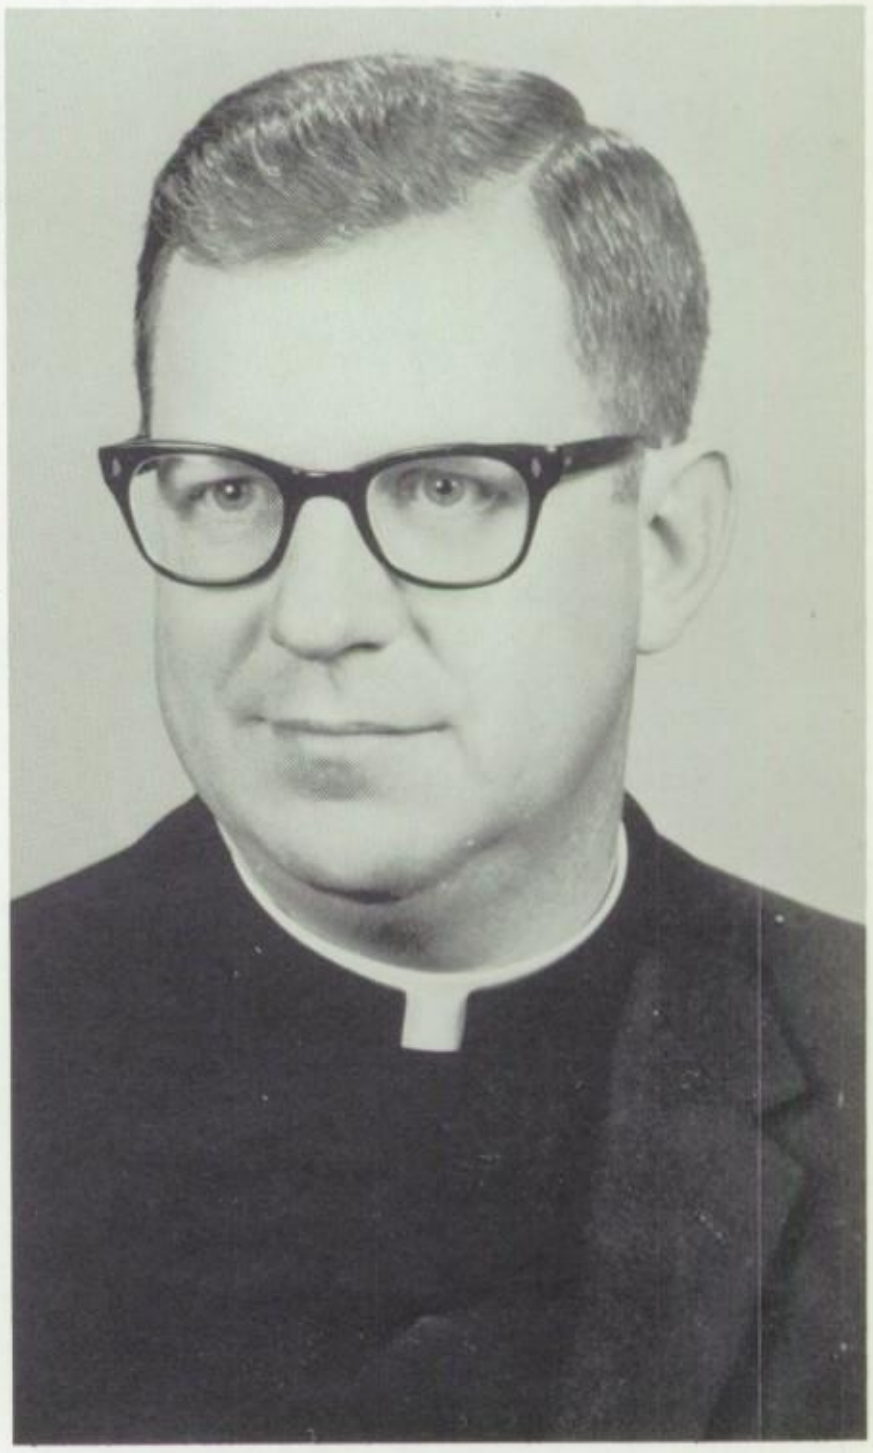
Though Catholic ideals and the support of the laity are essential to the establishment of Catholic schools, the school must also have able and progressive administrators. Kelley has been blessed with such an administration on both the diocesan and the school level.



Monsignor William H. Reid

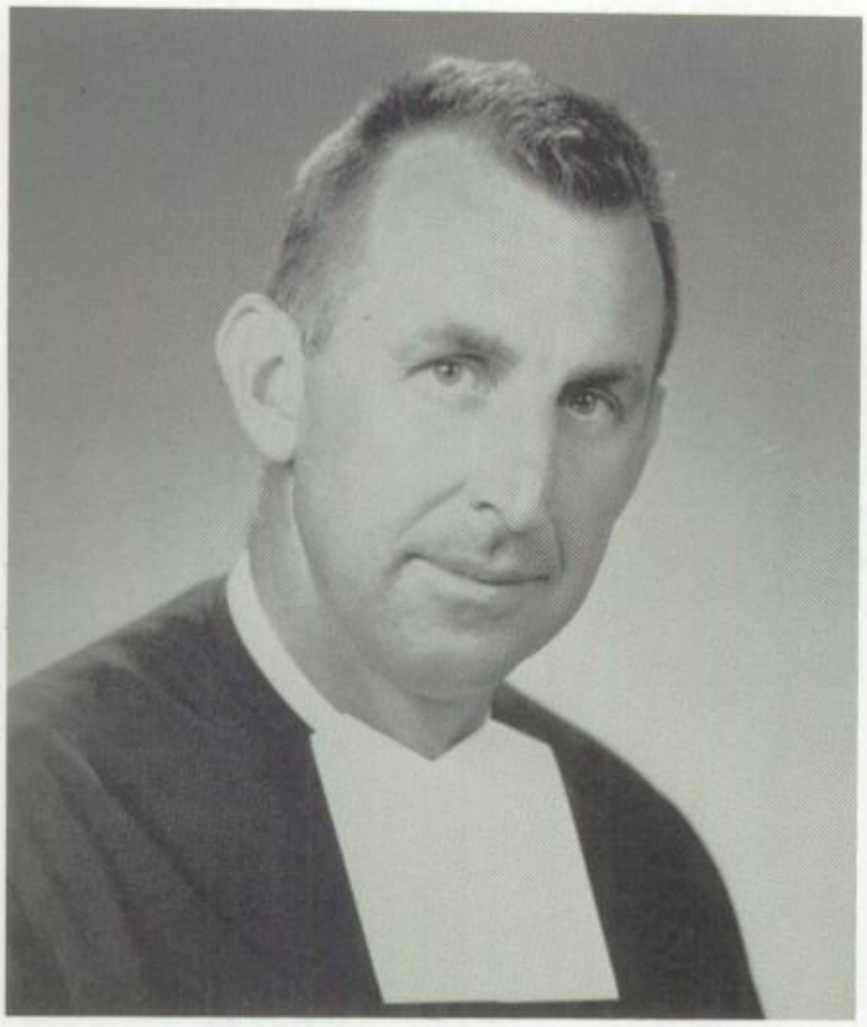
The Bishop's educational program is brought to Kelley through the efforts of Reverend Albert Flushe and Monsignor William Reid. Father Flushe, superintendent of Oklahoma Catholic Schools, works behind the scenes in an advisory capacity.

Monsignor Reid, rector of Holy Family Cathedral and head of Tulsa deanery, is chairman of the Tulsa board of pastors which encourages and helps with both the spiritual and material welfare of Kelley. Monsignor Reid's fatherly interest is evidenced by his frequent visits to the school and his complimentary remarks to all.



Reverend Ernest Flushe

School Administrators



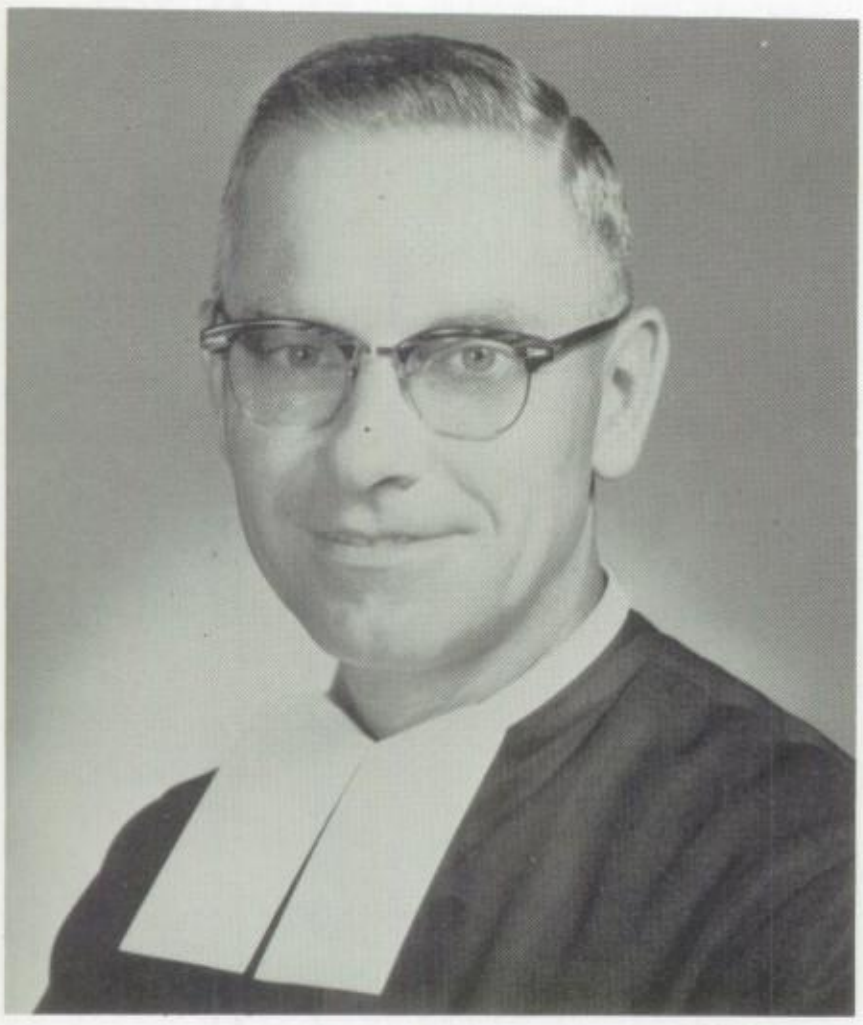
Brother K. Bernardine, F.S.C.

Brother Bernardine, the last of the "pioneer" Brothers, is superintendent of the school and Director of the Brothers. He can be seen in physics or math class, in the corridors encouraging the boys, laying cement, or, above all, going here and there taking care of all those items necessary to keep Kelley a progressing school.

Sister Angelina Marie, C.P.D.

Brother Bernardine is ably assisted by Sister Angeline Marie and Brother Thomas.

Sister also has been at Kelley since its opening and has guided the girls and the Sisters of Divine Providence as they teach to one success after another.



Brother H. Thomas, F.S.C.

Brother Thomas, in his year and a half as principal of the boys, has encouraged new educational techniques and has helped the juniors and seniors take a serious look at their future through his college guidance course.

Kelley Circle Officers: Mrs. Richard Enright, Treasurer; Mrs. Francis King, Vice-President; Brother Damian, Sponsor; Mrs. Robert Goodwin, President; Mrs. J. H. Brokaw, Secretary; Mrs. H. J. Finan, Corresponding Secretary.

Mrs. Swick, Nurse; Mrs. Peg Toomey, Secretary.

Business Office Runs Smoothly

The Kelley Circle is an organization which is much appreciated by the office. Their volunteer help makes everyone's job a little easier. Likewise, anyone who has found it necessary to go to the infirmary can appreciate the cheerful and donated service of our nurse, Mrs. Swick.

Working with our administrators are Mrs. O'Byrne, the bookkeeper, and Mrs. Toomey, the secretary. Mrs. O'Byrne's son is an alumnus of Kelley and Mrs. Toomey, whose daughter is an alumna, still has two sons at Kelley. Their cheerfulness, efficiency, and the little "extras" they do are proof of their loyalty to Kelley.

Theology Promotes Christian Living

We make our offering more meaningful.

If we are to live in the world, there are two things we must first know; what the world is and what we are. The secular subjects take care of the first, Theology tells us what we are in terms of our relations with God and our fellow men. After learning this through study and practice, we judge and act with the mind of Christ and thus exert a Christian influence on our neighbors, community, political and economic environment, putting the world in harmony with the ideal of Christian Society.

Mathematics Presents a Challenge

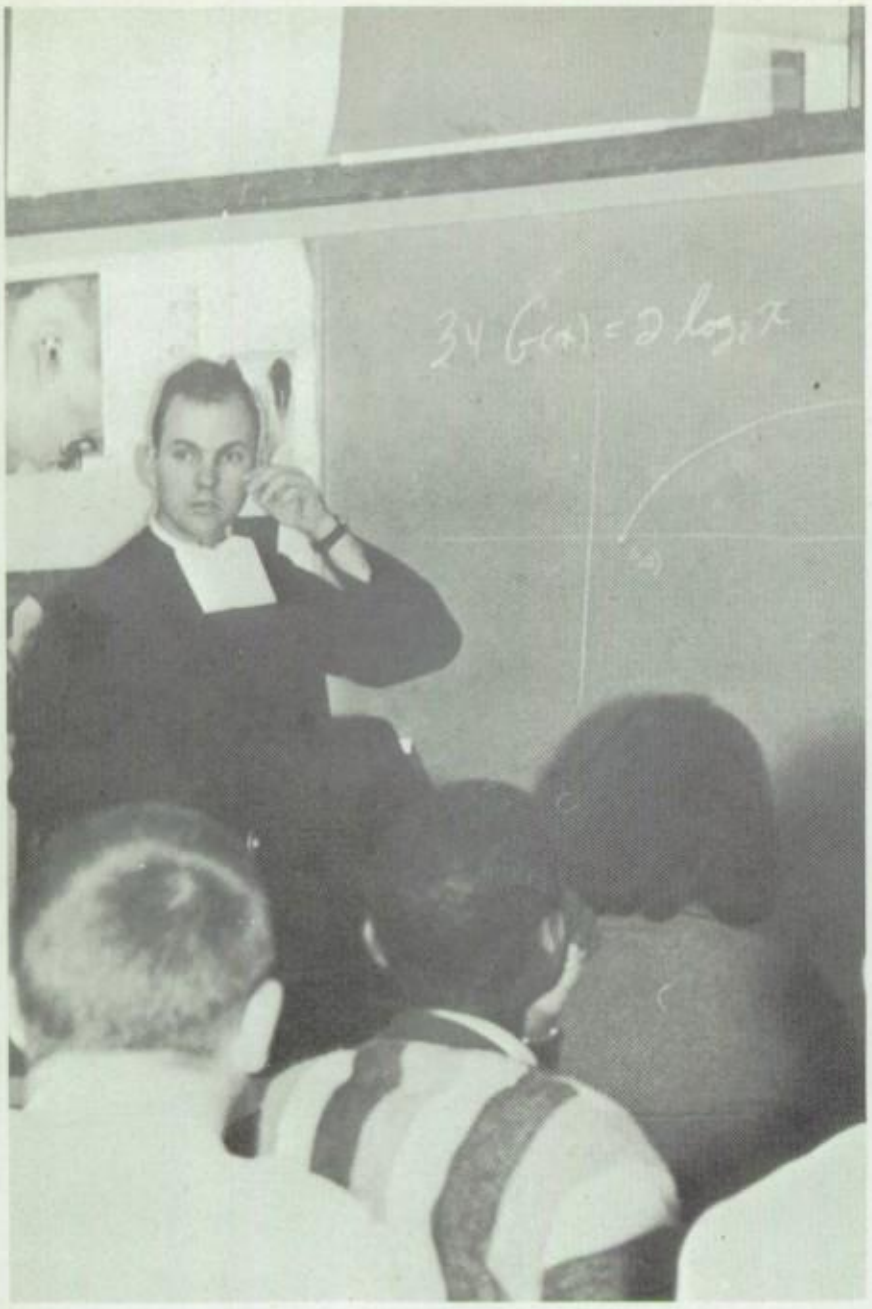
Brother Damian, F.S.C.,
Mathematics

Graphs, logarithms, theorems, identities, projects, are words used by the math students of Kelley. This essential department is well staffed by qualified teachers who emphasize the importance of math in preparing for colleges, for the business fields, and the everyday life in the world.

In addition to the basic courses, trigonometry, advanced algebra, and analytics are offered to students who have an interest in math and want to broaden their interest.

Our challenge reaches its height as our Seniors struggle through analytics.



The question a little tough, Brother?

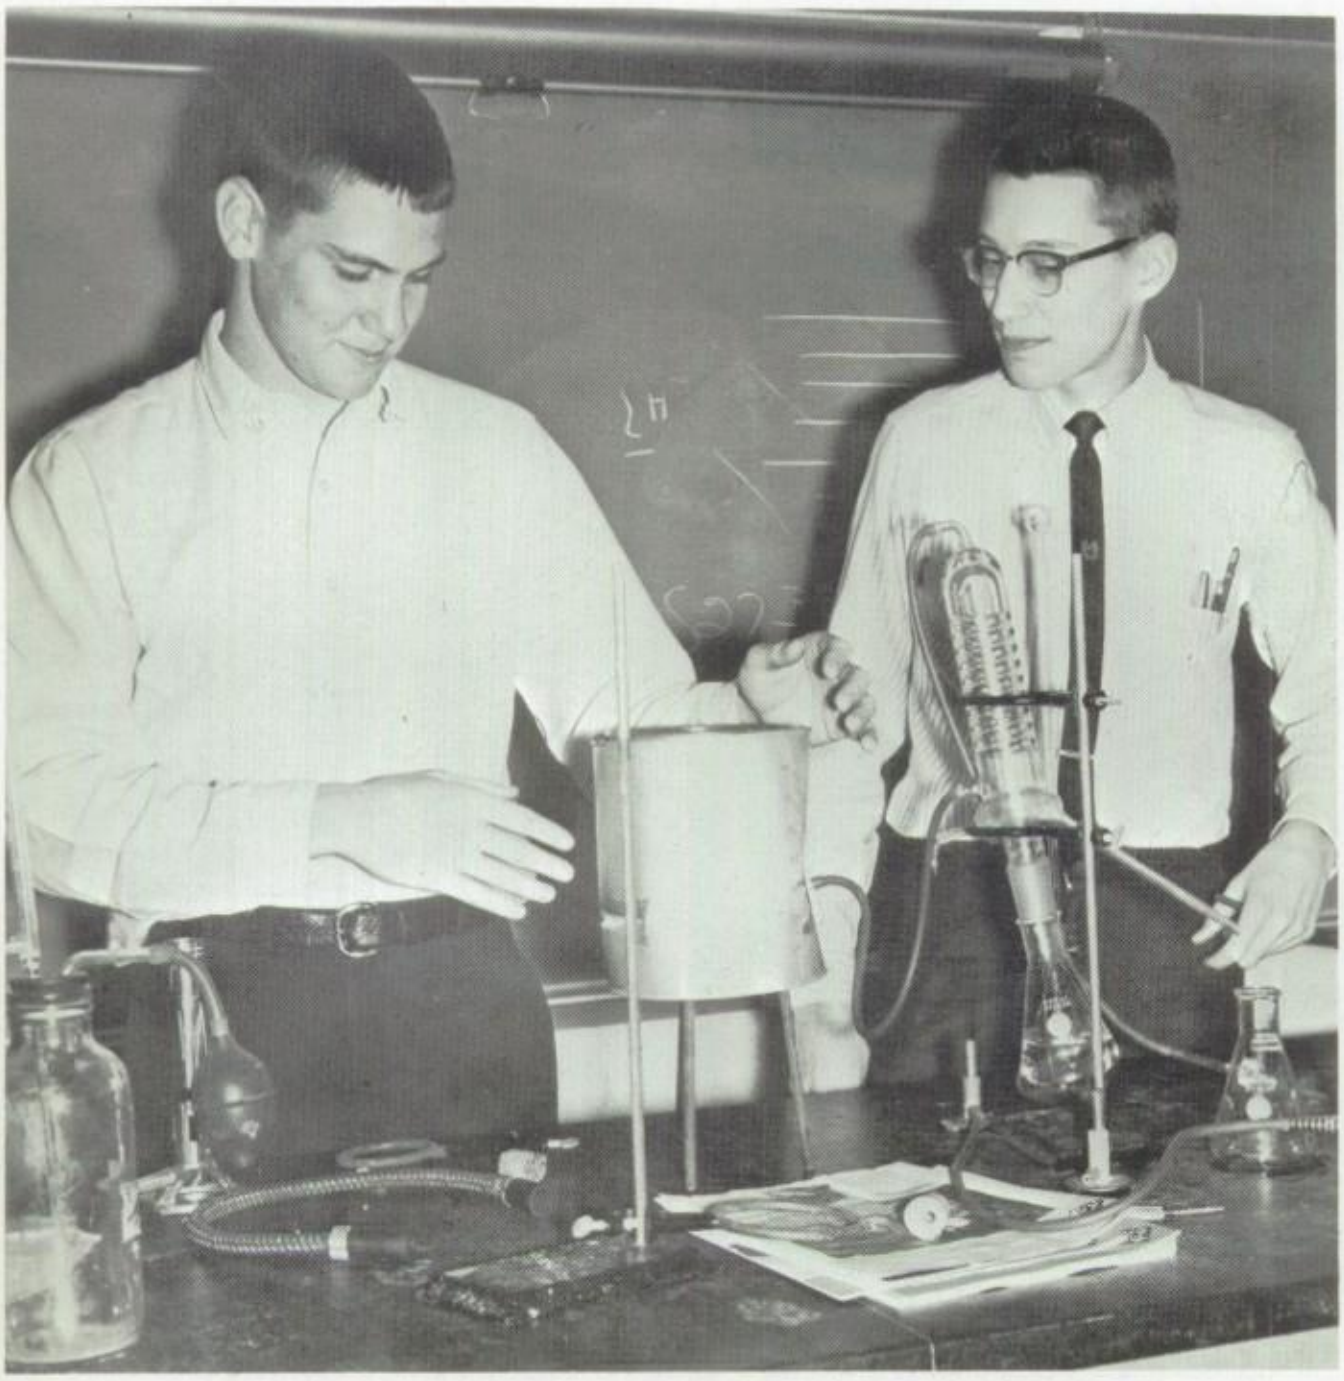
Science Probes the Unknown



From the smallest particle of matter to the vast complex of the universe, science delves into God's wonders through chemistry, physics, and biology, uncovering the laws and principles governing our material world. Through observations, experiments, and reasoning, the science student at Kelley shares in the discoveries which led to man's development of the earth's resources for the betterment of human life.

Sister Ange, C.P.D.,
Latin, English

Our world today needs the well-rounded, educated man. To produce this caliber of person, our curriculum includes a complete language course. Kelley's goal is to give society the best, so the languages covered are Spanish, Latin, and French. The teachers are also introducing more advanced ways of teaching, such as films, records, and foreign newspapers. The records especially aid in learning pronunciation. The language is taught naturally and the student becomes acquainted with the culture and background of the country and the people so that he has a fuller appreciation than mere words convey.

The odds are Four to One in France, John.

Latin is old stuff to Tom New.

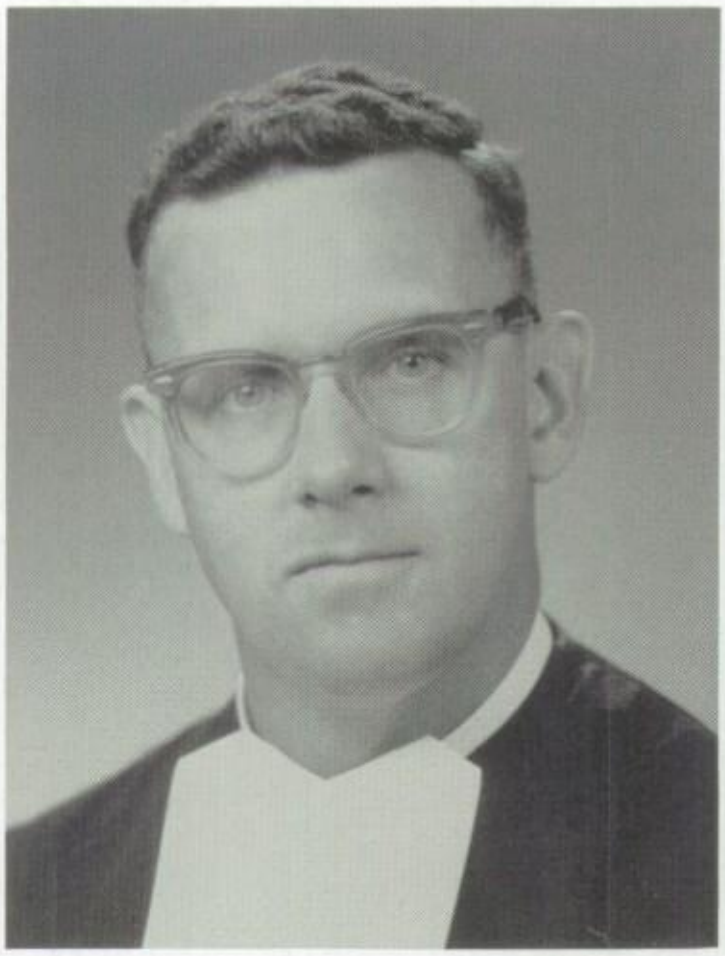
English Fosters Communications



Brother Dominic, F.S.C.,

Brother Carl, F.S.C.,

Honors English Class learns through discussion.

Since there is no field of study that does not in some way employ the use of language, the ability to communicate vividly and accurately is the most basic of skills. The conditions of modern life make it imperative that we give high priority to educating young people to write clearly and coherently.

This year Kelley has initiated an Honors English Class. A unique feature of this class is the discussion groups. Within these groups the students try to reach an understanding of great literature on their own, which leads them to appreciate literature more.

For a better understanding of human nature, satisfaction in reading, and enjoyment of drama, it is necessary to have good training in English.

Social Studies Mirror the Past

The civilizations which precede ours, their culture, customs, and achievements, are the foundations on which recent and current civilizations are based. As we study the evolution of these, we come to understand the differences in development and the sameness in the nobleness and weaknesses in mankind.

Kelley's curriculum, like most schools, includes courses in social studies. However, Kelley believes not only in just teaching natural principles; but, also, the Christian principles that relate to social studies.

Business Accents Skills

Sister Rose Frances, C.P.D.,
Typing, Shorthand, Bookkeeping

Kelley offers much for learning in the field of business. Courses include bookkeeping, shorthand, typing, and business math. These are the basic skills from which the business world is fashioned. The business department's main objective is to give the student a wide background of the necessary skills and training to prepare him for entry into the business world or into a business college.

Typing II students strive for maximum speed and accuracy.

Sister Angelina Marie, in middle, is the sponsor and instructor.

Journalism Sparks Interest

The main product of most Journalism classes is a newspaper. Kelley's class is no exception. However, Kelley's newspaper, The Croiser, is exceptional. This is not just agreed on by the students of Kelley who read the paper, but also by a panel of prominent newspaper judges who gave The Croiser the award of being the best all-round school newspaper in the city.

Kelley's student interest is most often seen when the paper is distributed and all the students are found glued to such unique columns of "I. Seymour" or "The Bomb of the Month." The other features also spark interest. Congratulations to The Croiser Staff on a job well done!

September Boy and Girl of the Month

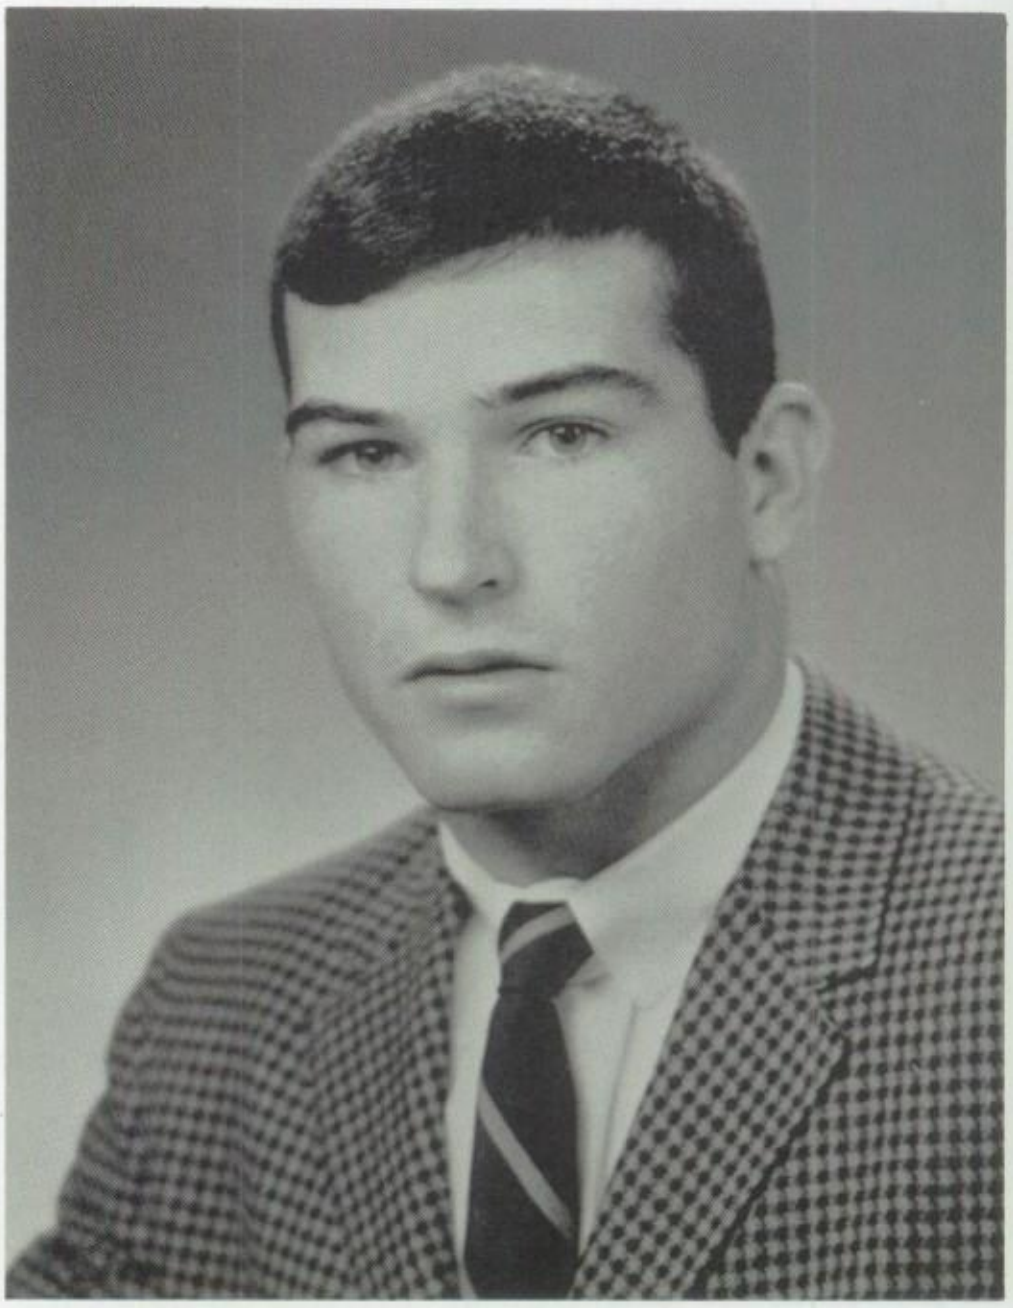
Michel Siebert

Chosen as the first girl of the month for this year was Michel Siebert. Known for her easy smile and sparkling eyes, Michel was best known as Pep Club president.

Although the Pep Club took up most of her time, Michel was a member of Sodality, Drama Club, and had a part in the Senior play. She was elected Basketball attendant.

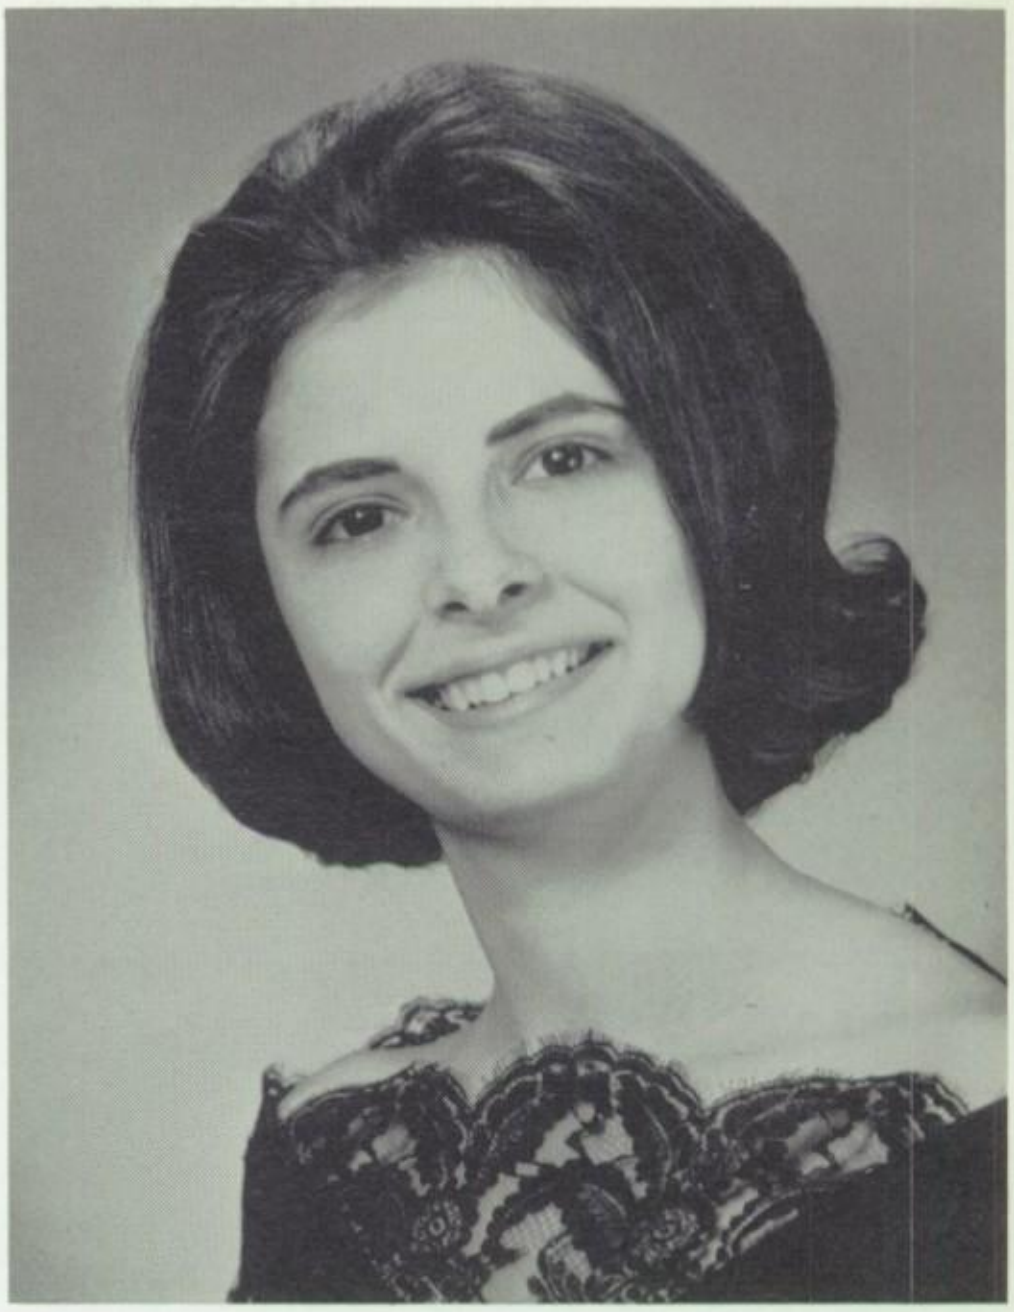
Michel was home room president in her freshman year, secretary-treasurer in her sophomore year, and has been on both honor rolls throughout high school.

Chosen as the first boy of the month this year was Rick Clark. Athletics seem to be Rick's strong point at Kelley although he had a part in two speech plays, One Day in the Life of Ivan Denisovitch, and Of Mice and Men. His dedication to the school was easily shown by his membership in the Key Club and his office as president of the Letterman's Club. Besides being Co-captain of the football team this year, Rick has shown intellectual awakening by being on the A Honor Roll.



Rick Clark

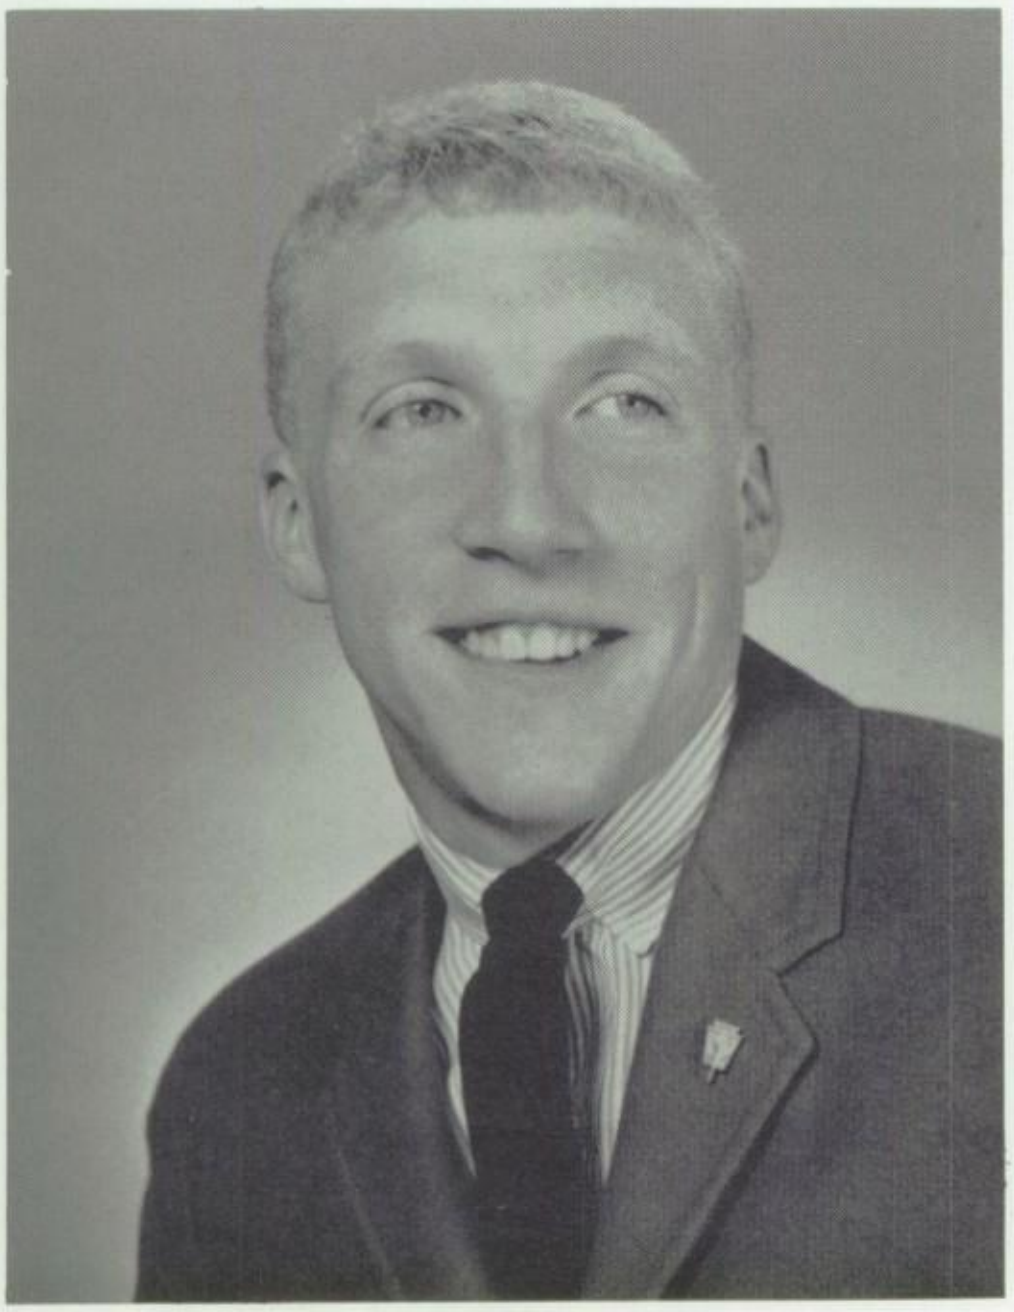
October Boy and Girl of the Month



Janet Blaize

Janet Blaize was our girl of the Month for October and was also chosen as the 1965 Miss Kelley. Since she was picked to play the lead in the Senior Class Play, The Diary of Anne Frank, she was probably the only girl in the world that was Jewish with a Southern accent.

Besides being an actress, Janet was also a full-time worker in school activities, especially in Student Council where she served the offices as Secretary and Vice-President. She also held membership in Sodality, Little Theater, and National Honor Society.

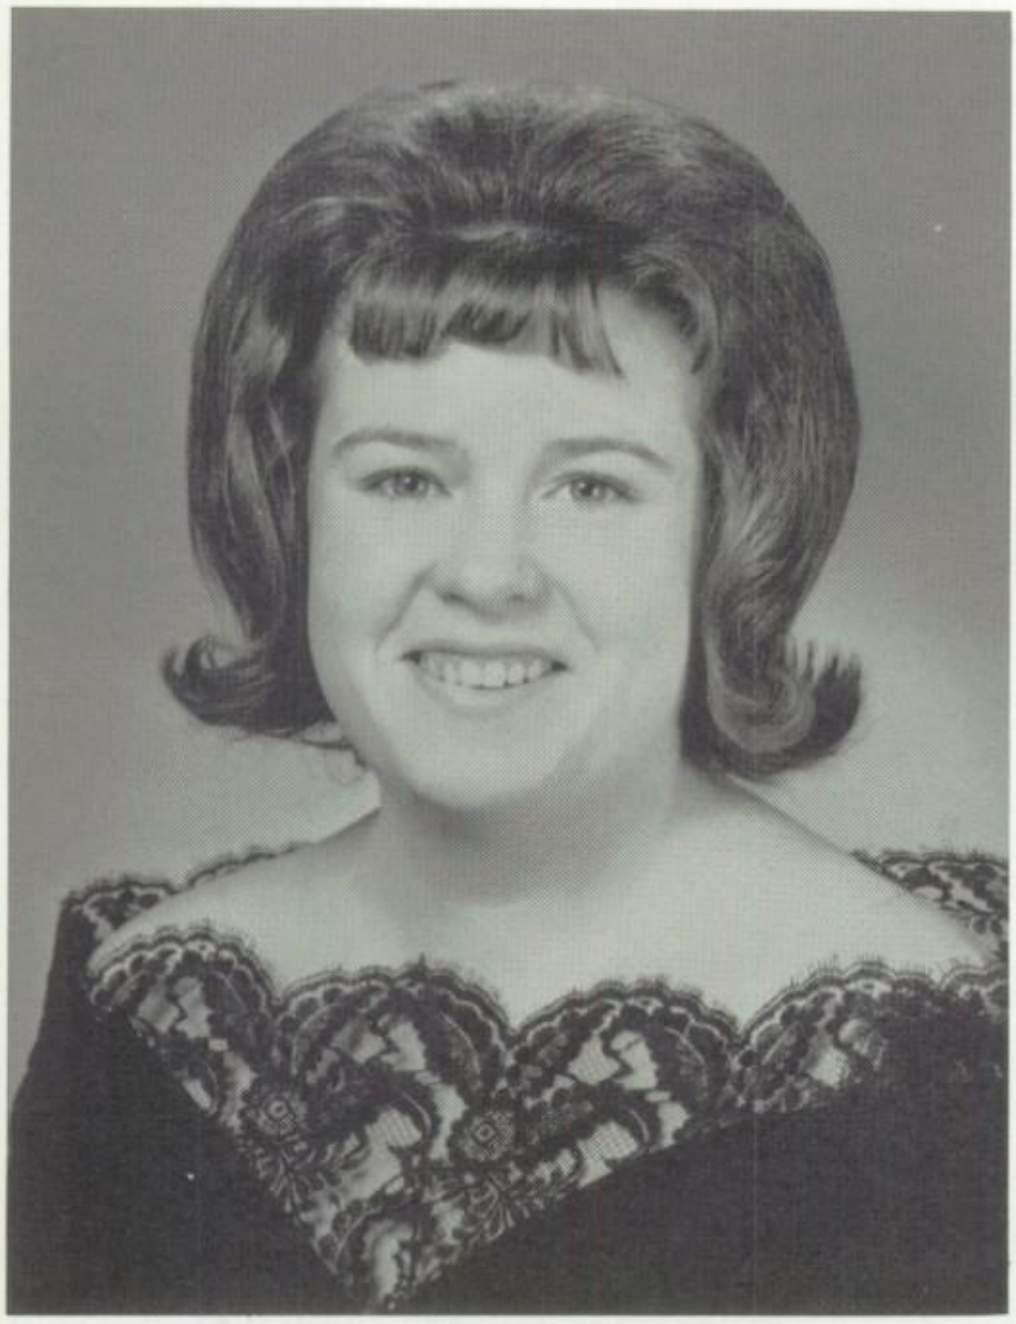


Bob Edwards

Bob Edwards, our beloved Student Council President, like Janet, was elected boy of the month for October and also Mr. Kelley for 1965. Bob was known for his attraction to guitars, old pick-up trucks, and his strong opinions about the National Honor Society.

In sports, Bob lettered in track and played basketball and football. Bob was especially known for his pole vaulting abilities. He was well-liked around school and was intensely popular.

November Boy and Girl of the Month



Kathie Sullivan

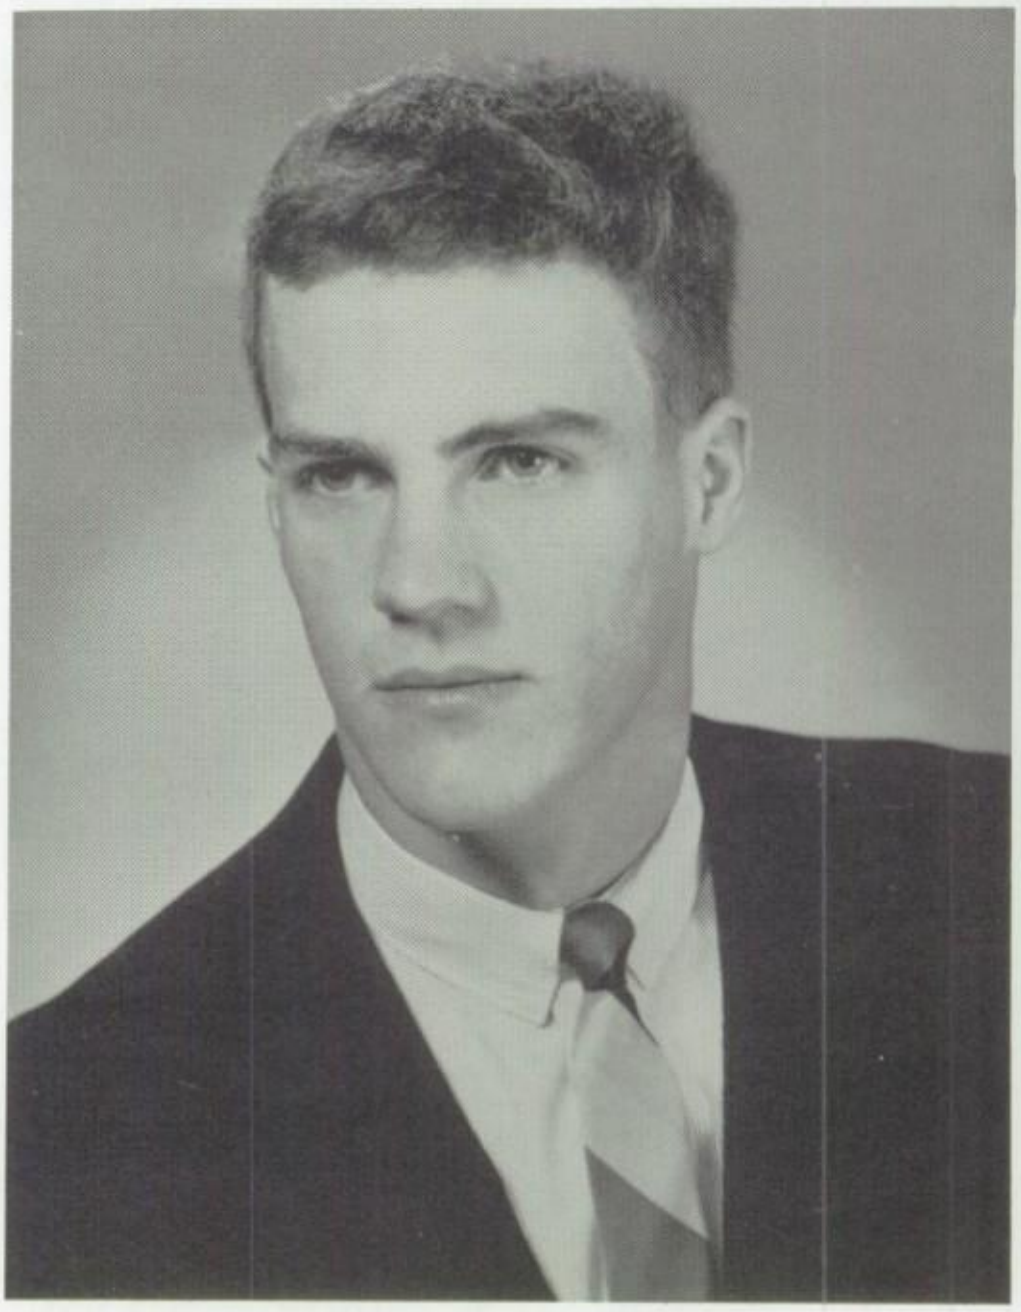
The 1964-65 Miss Howdy, Kathie Sullivan, was chosen as the November girl of the month. Kathie was known by everybody in the school through her active participation either in the Pep Club or G.R.A.

However, Kathie didn't limit herself to just those two clubs, but could be found working wherever she was needed. She always gave support, spirit, and slashes.

Her ability to lead was recognized by all as she was given the leadership award and the title, Miss Spirit.

By coincidence, Jim Bensko was also Mr. Howdy and boy of the month for November. Jim was known around school for his athletic and academic endeavors. That Jim was a three-year member of the National Honor Society and co-captain of the football team exemplifies his fine leadership in varied fields.

As last year's vice-president of the Letterman's Club, Jim held varsity letters in baseball and football. He was also a three-year member of the Key Club and a member of the Little Theater.

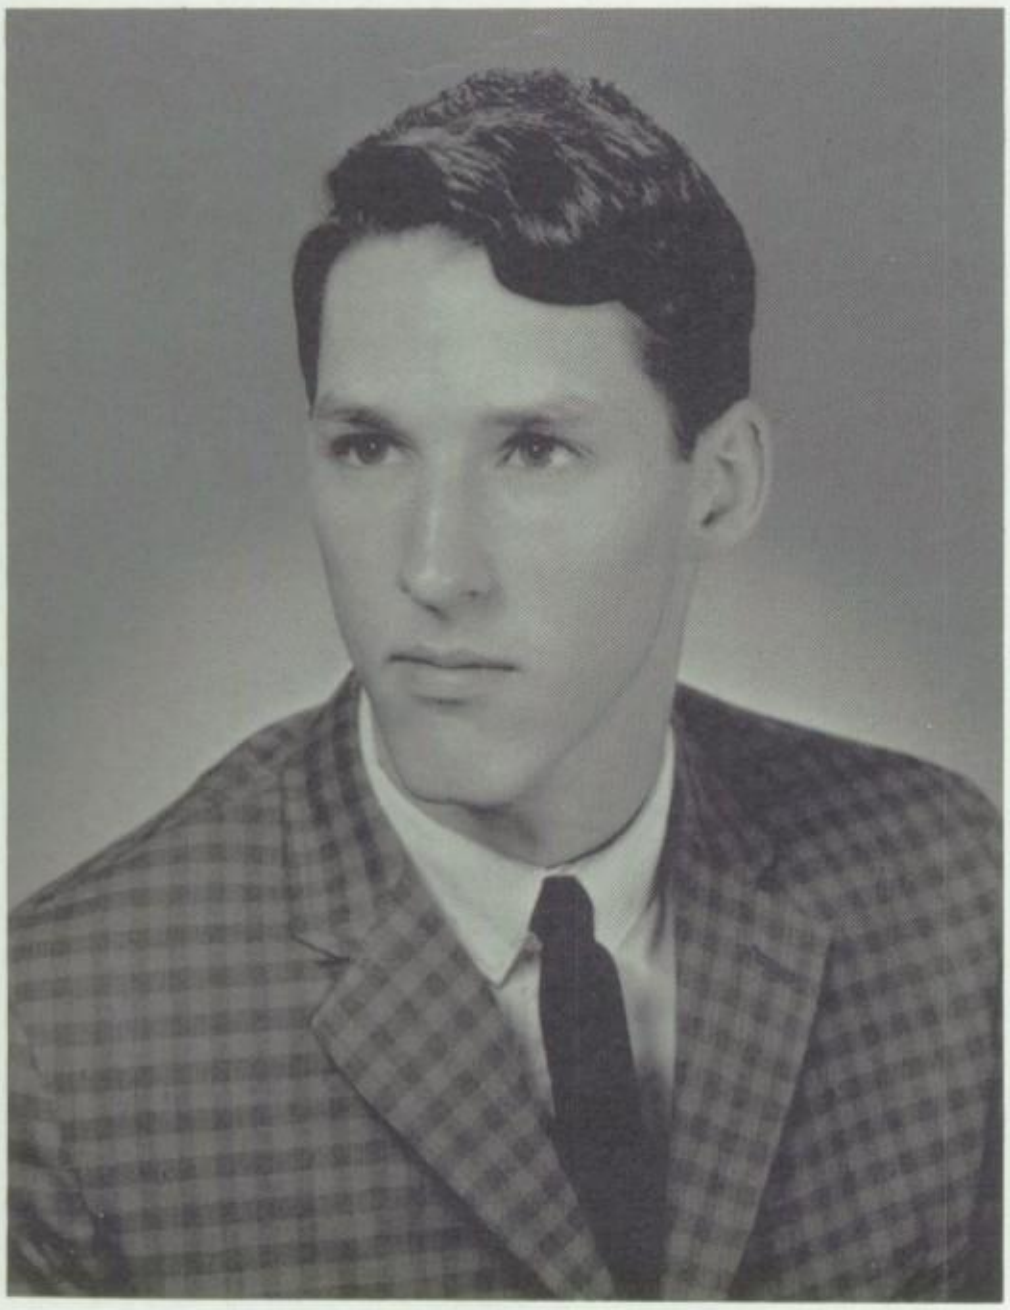


Jim Bensko

December Boy and Girl of the Month

Deserving the honor of girl of the month for December was Susan Mackey. She was usually seen hobbling around the school with an extra pair of wooden legs, commonly called crutches. However, her physical limitation did not handicap her participation in many activities. She was an active member of the Pep Club, Anchor Club, Little Theater, and G.R.A. Also, Susan edited the yearbook. Scholastically, she maintained an A-B average and was a member of the National Honor Society.

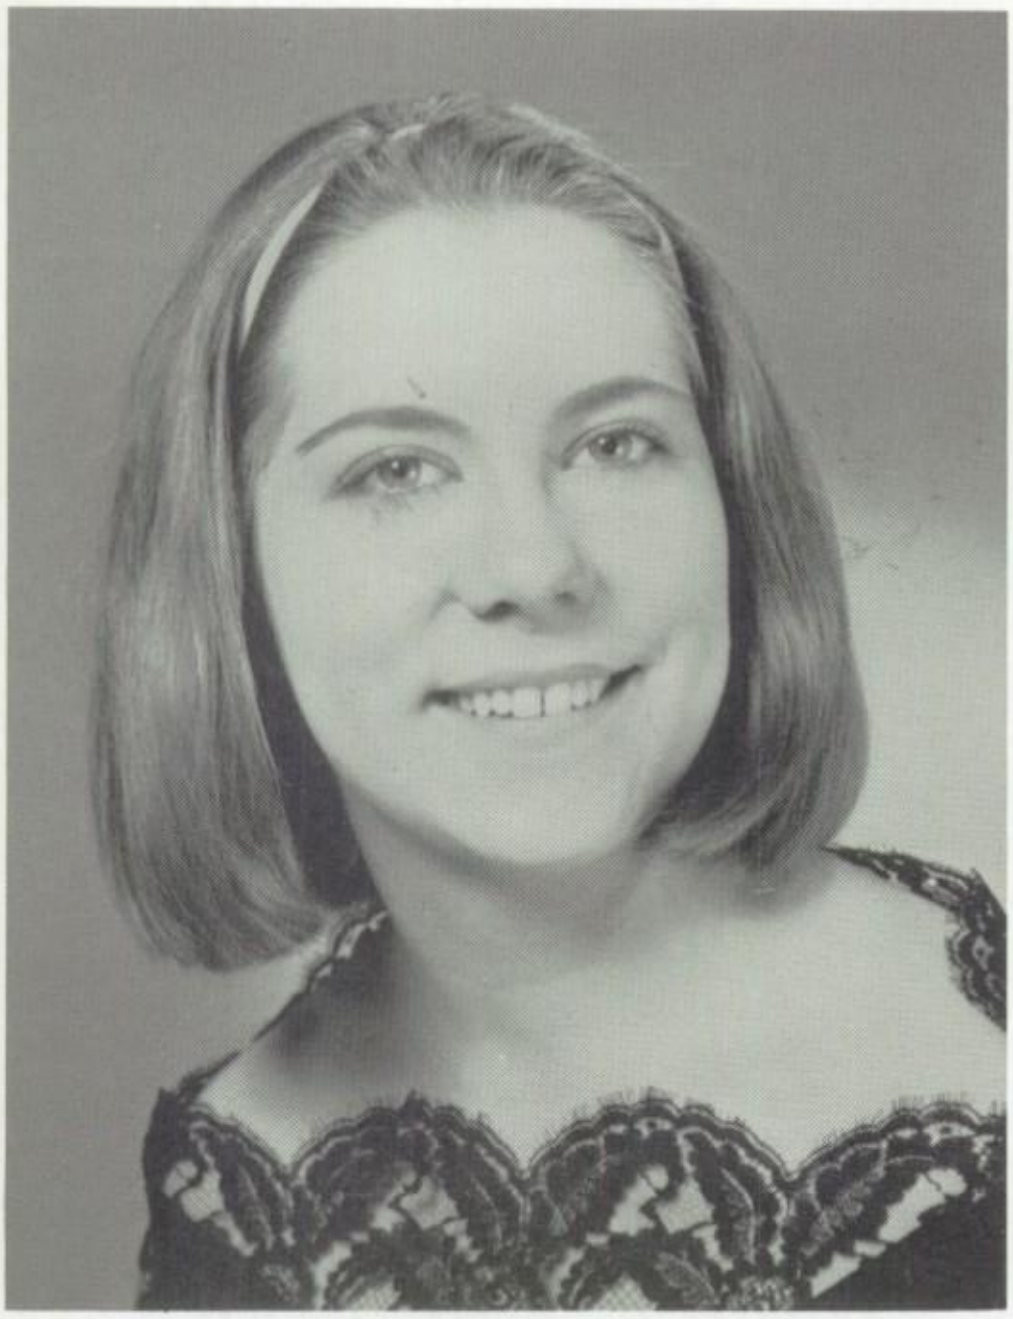
Susan Mackey



Mike Hackett

Very outstanding at Kelley was December boy of the month, Mike Hackett. An Honor student, Mike has been a member of the National Honor Society since his Sophomore year. As a varsity letterman in baseball, Mike stands out in baseball achievements. He was a four-year letterman in basketball. Mike also participated in Student Council and was selected a representative in his junior year. Rounding out his other activities, Mike was a member of the Senior Board, Key Club, and Little Theater. Musically, Mike was a Symphony Sophomore and a Philharmonic Phil.

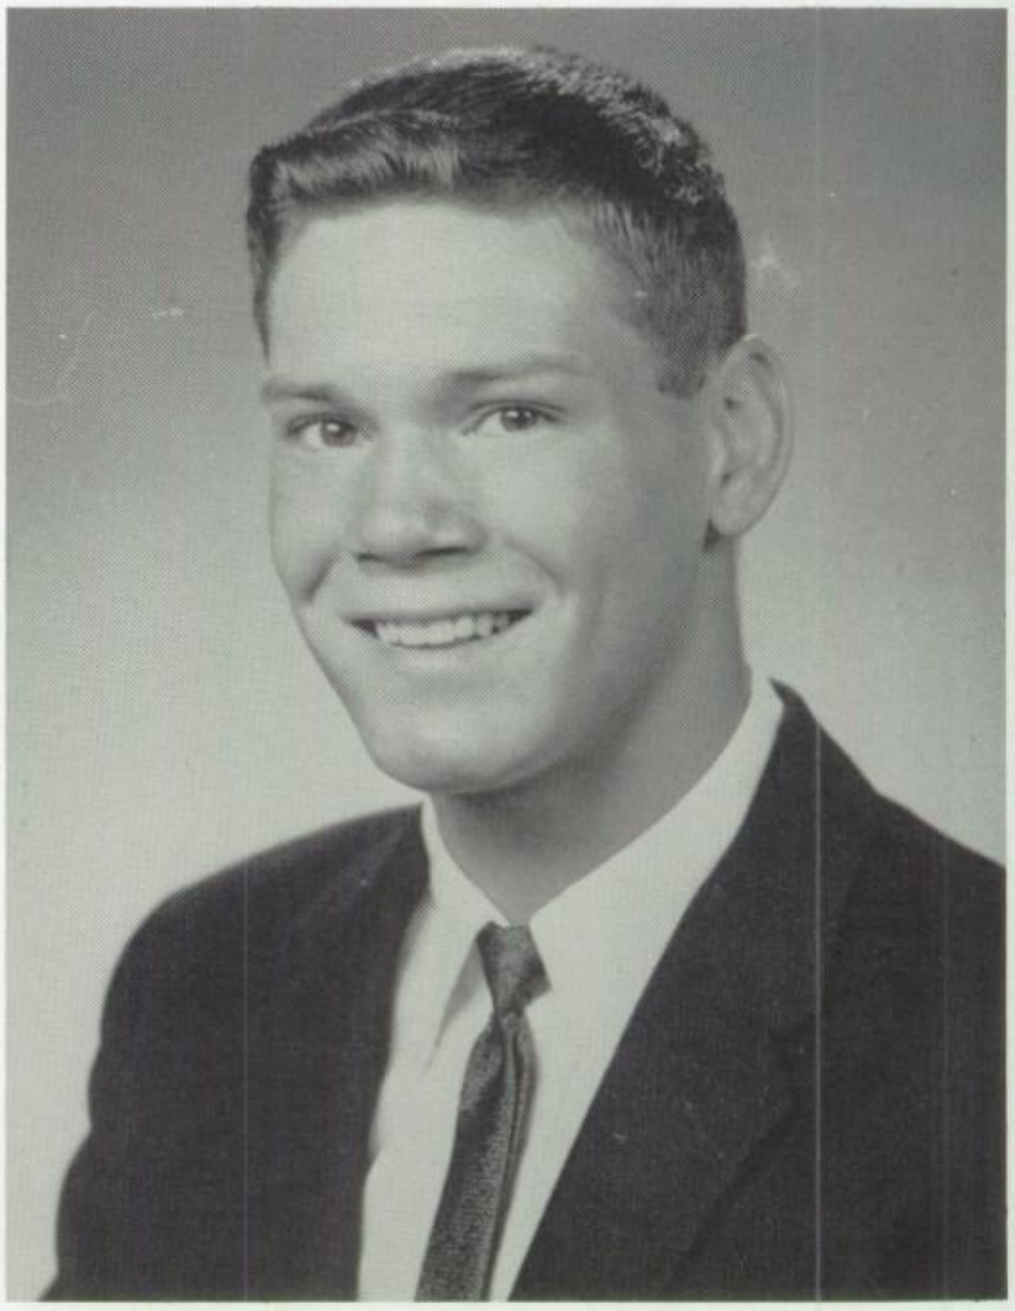
January Boy and Girl of the Month



Phyllis Harper

Phyllis Harper was our January girl of the month. As a sophomore, Phyllis became aware of the many advantages of changing schools, and came to Kelley to be known as "Scott Harper's little sister." Phyllis was a member of the Senior Board and has done much to influence unity and co-operation in the Senior Class. She has also been an active part in Kelley's effort to join the National Thespian Society, and held the office of president of the Kelley Little Theater. During elections Phyllis the Republican Party and her enthusiasm won her an office in the Teenage Republicans.

Our very Irish Senior, Bryan Patrick O'Brien, was chosen as the outstanding boy in January. Known all over Kelley, if not all over Tulsa, for his ability in athletics. Bryan has revealed that he has been in sports since he was "knee high." He is a three-year letterman in football and wrestling. The biggest news in Kelley's wrestling circles was Bryan's victory over the talented Shigeru Soneda, as a combined team of Bixby, Edison, and Kelley wrestlers defeated an all-star Japanese wrestling team.



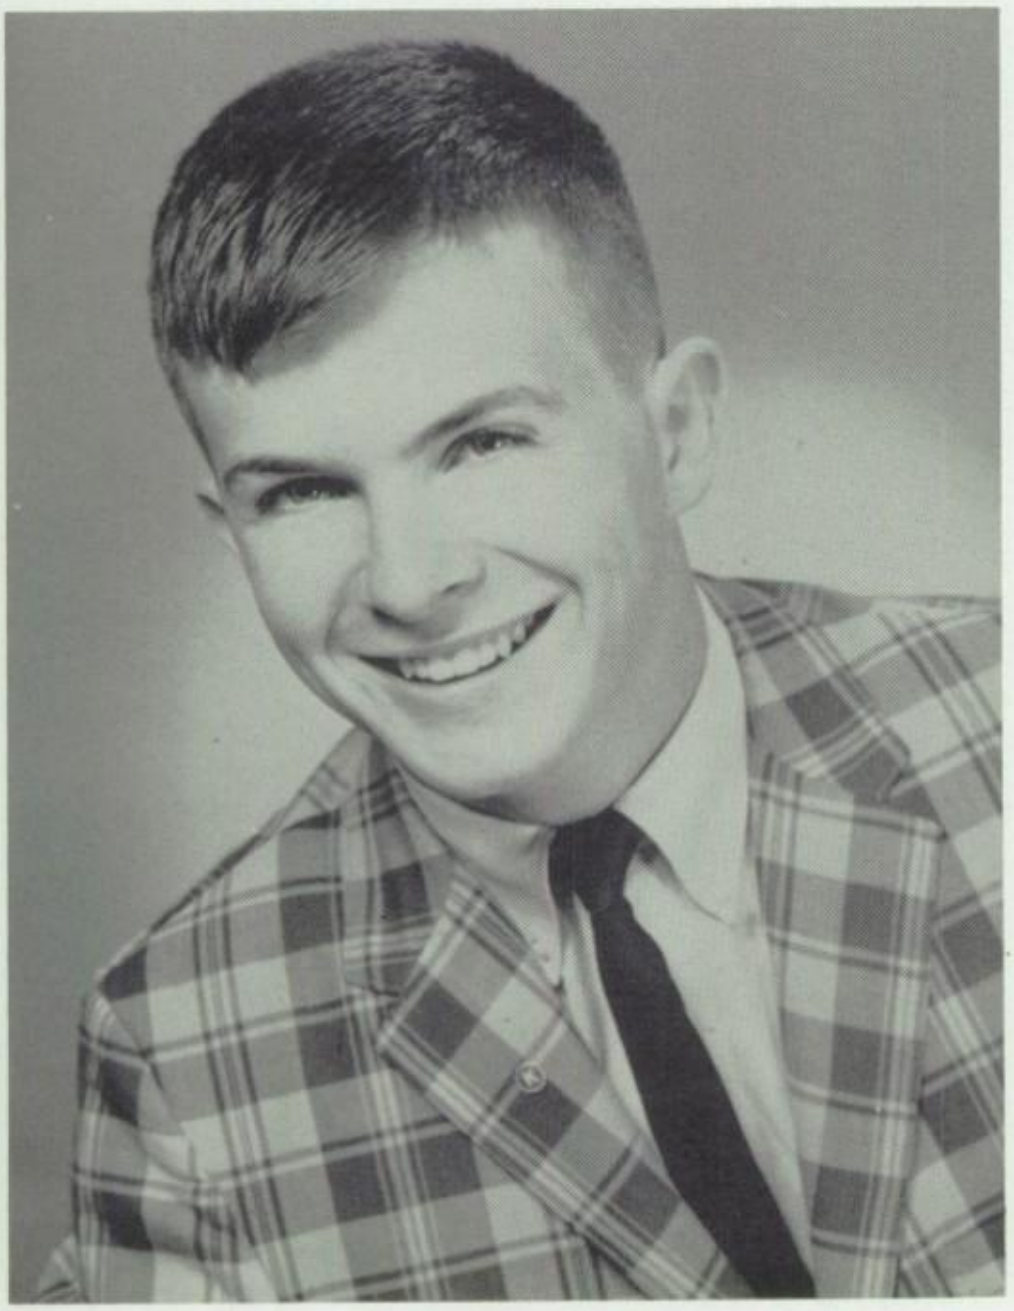
Bryan O'Brien

February Boy and Girl of the Month

Linda Clark

Deserving special attention this month was Linda Clark. Linda was one of those quiet, charming personalities around Kelley until she donned her cheerleading uniform and was out cheering the comets to victory. Linda's red hair caused her no problem. She had no trouble playing Margot in "The Diary of Anne Frank," although she was a unique red-headed Jew.

In between her other activities, Linda took time out to be a member of the Anchor Club, Sodality, Little Theater, and a reporter for the Croisier.

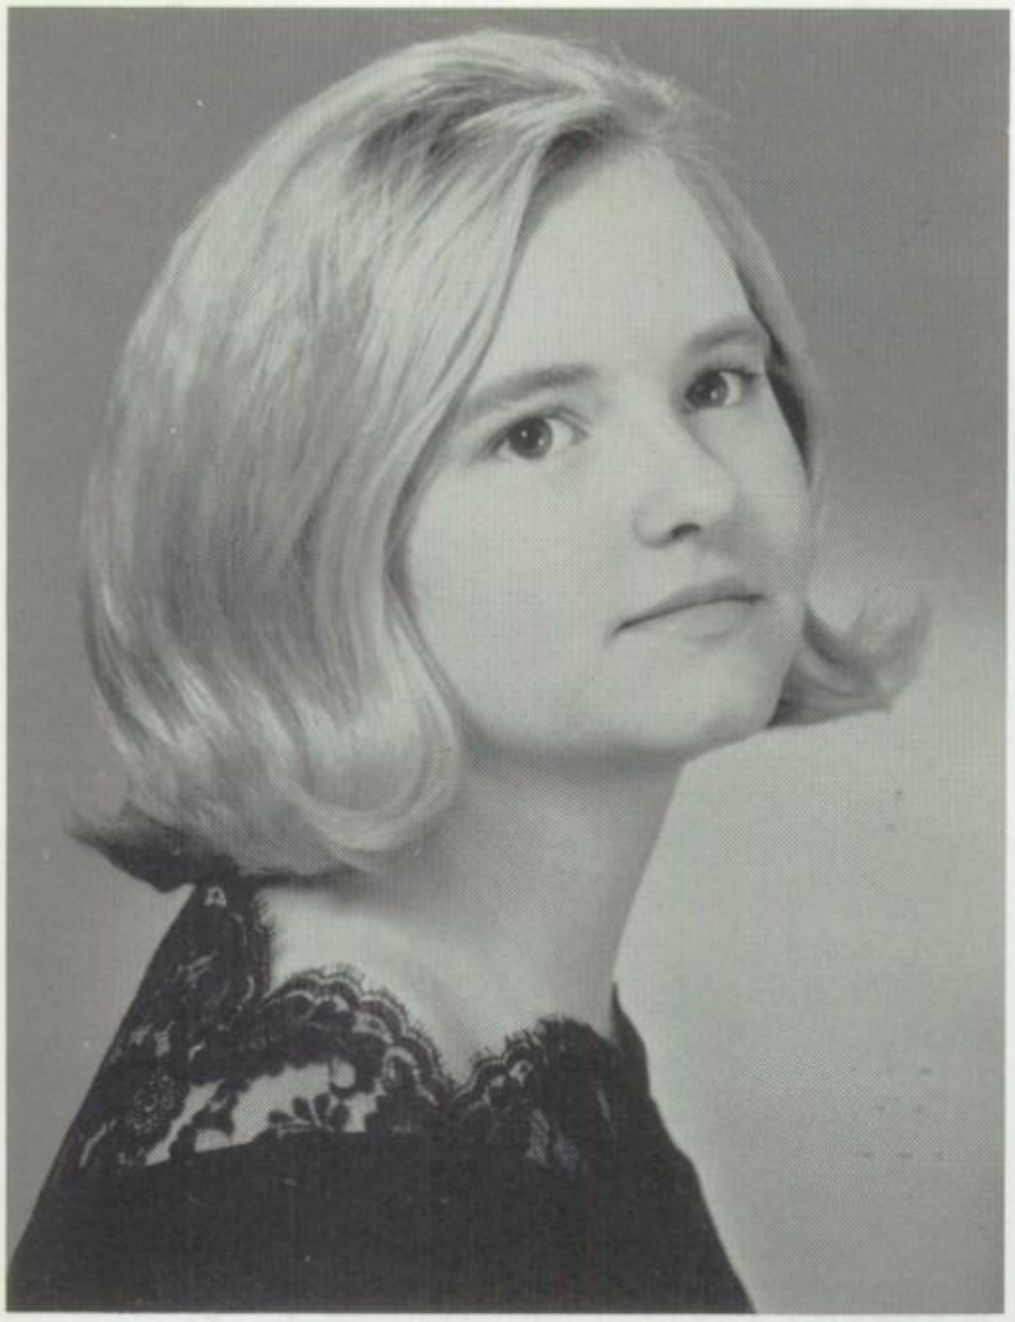


Dick Call

Sharing the honors with Linda for this month was Dick Call. Dick, commonly referred to as George in "Of Mice and Men" or as Mr. Van Daan in "The Diary of Anne Frank," was certainly deserving of the honor of boy of the month.

He is one of those "behind the scenes" workers at Kelley. He was always found working hard on school projects that took a lot of time and effort. He was a member of the Key Club, Little Theater, Philharmonic Phils, and was an Inter-City Student Council representative.

March Boy and Girl of the Month

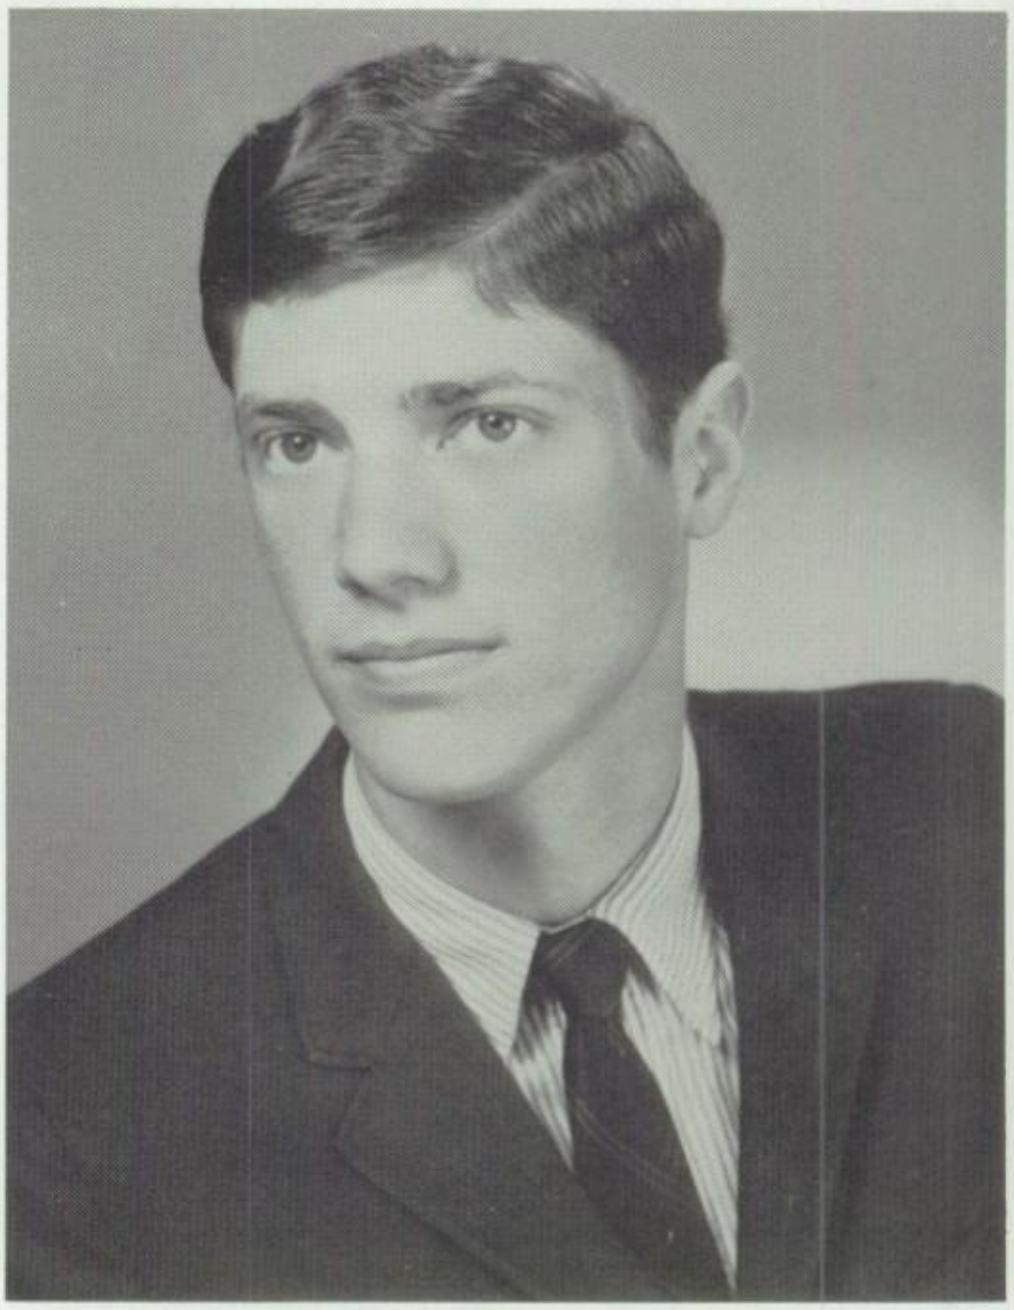


Mary Ellen Davidson

A big bright smile identifies our girl of the month for March, Mary Ellen Davidson. Don't call her just Mary, or you will find out her tremendous verbal ability.

Besides her many talents, such as, being a champion swimmer, secretary of the Science Club, and being a member of the yearbook staff, she was also the champion of the Math IV class.

Scholastically, Mary Ellen has achieved the title of a Tulsa University Scholar, has been a member of National Honor Society, and has been on the A Honor Roll.



Johnny Sherman

Best known by the name "skinny", Johnny Sherman was chosen boy of the month for March. Johnny was probably known best for his abilities in basketball. This year at the Catholic State Basketball Tournament he was named to the All Tournament Basketball Team.

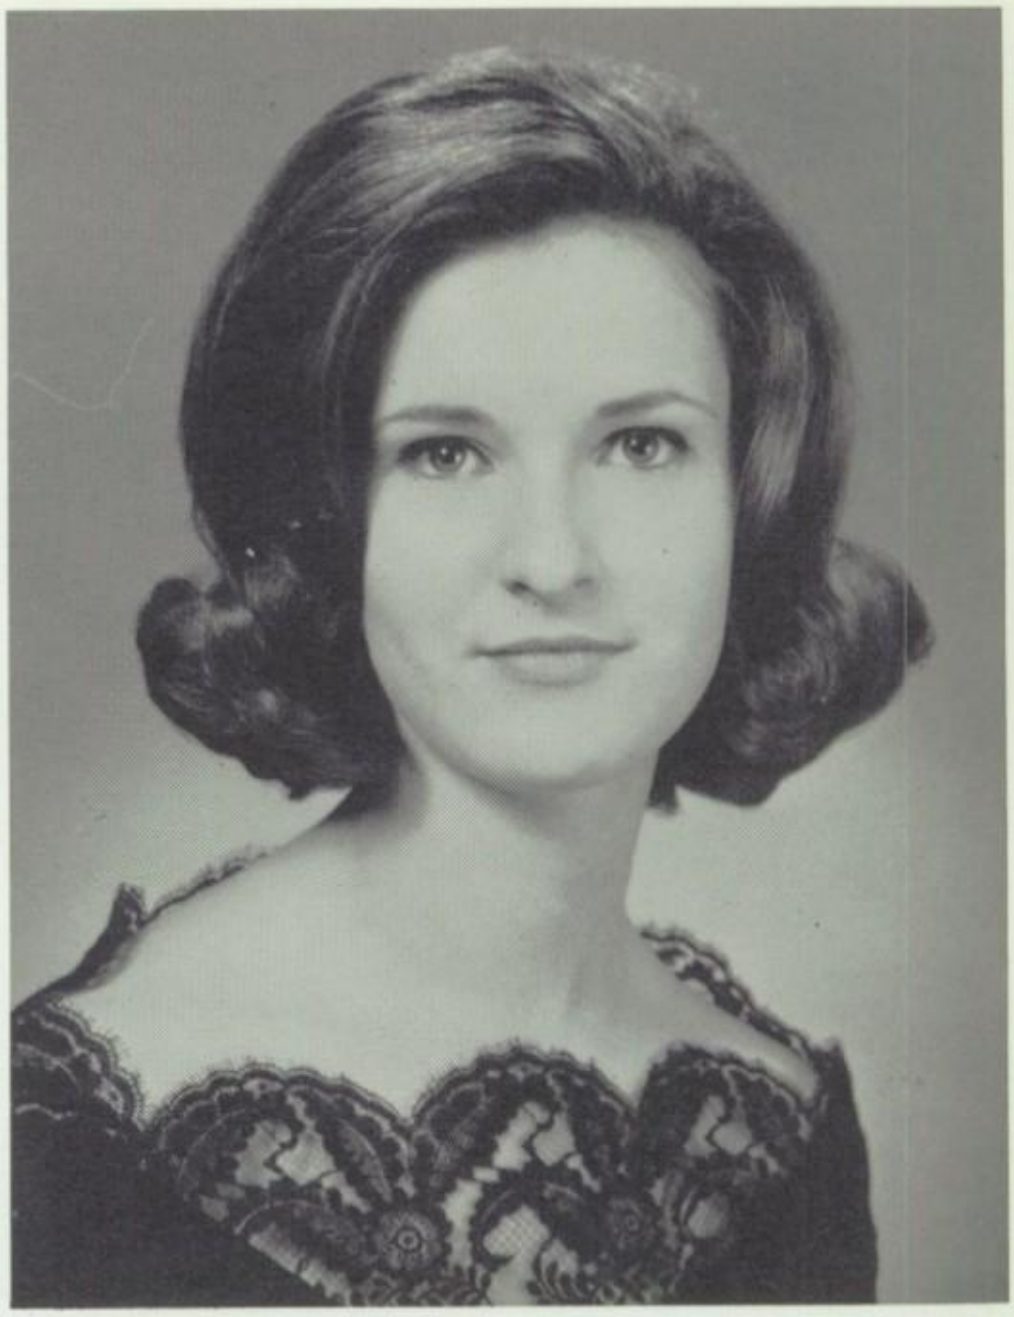
Besides making the honor roll, Johnny was a member of the Lettermans Club. Other favorite outside activities are waterskiing and girls.

Next year Johnny will attend Oklahoma State University and become a "business man."

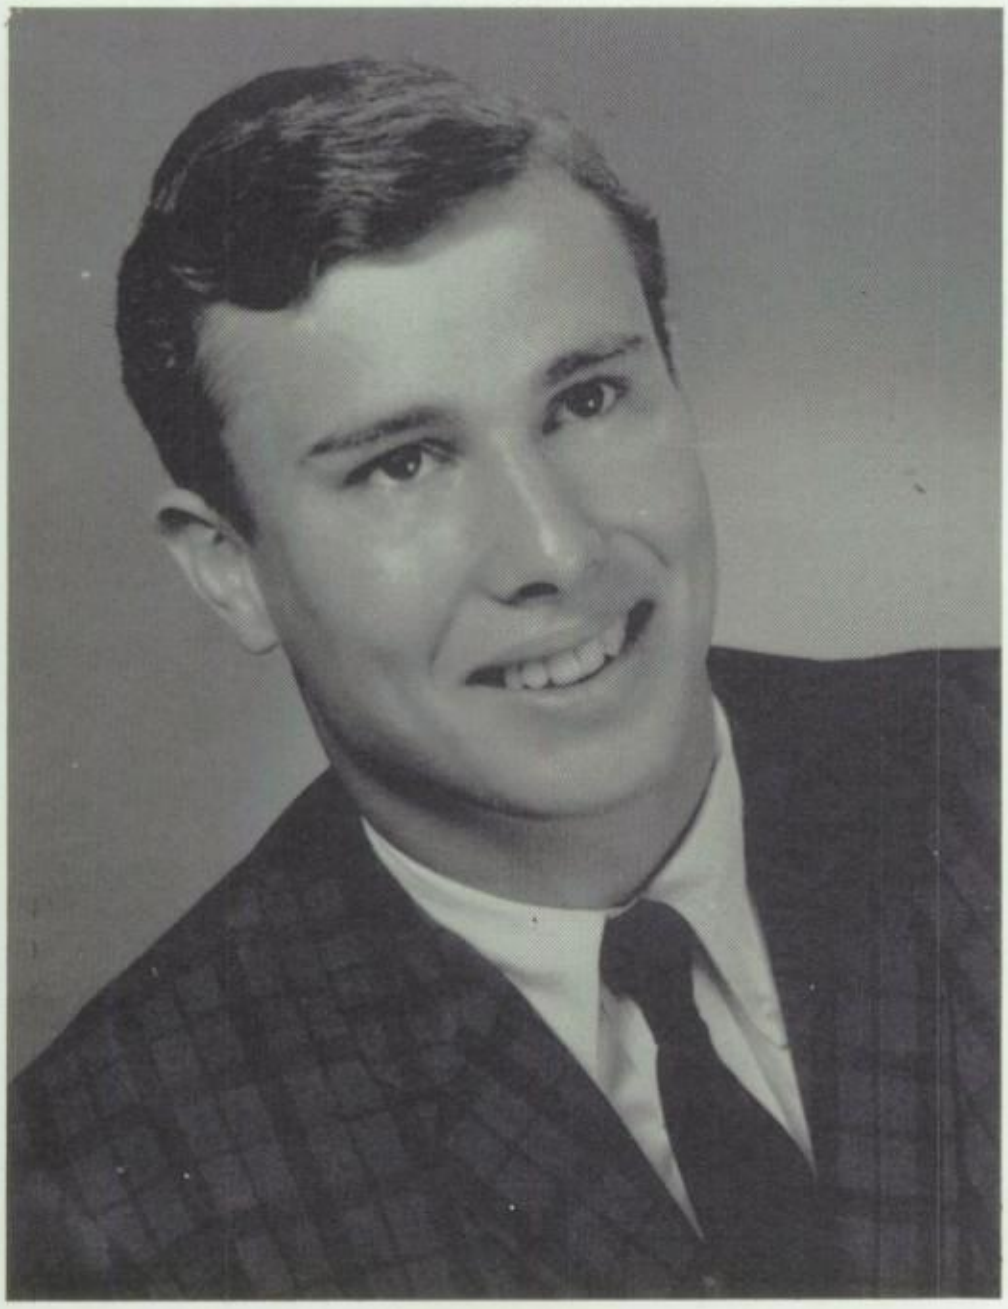
April
Boy and Girl
of the Month

Girl of the month for April was Janet Jakubowski. She was one of those many activitied girls heard about so much. Janet was on the B Honor Roll during school and was president of her sophomore class.

She was a member of the Pep Club for four years and a member of the Anchor Club during her Senior year. Janet was active in many Choral groups along with her twin sister, Jane.



Janet Jakubov'ski



Greg Roach

April was the month of Greg Roach. His famous sense of humor came to the forefront then because the first of the month was made especially for jokes.

Besides his talent as a comedian which always kept us laughing, Greg's achievements in sports have been his greatest asset. He has lettered in football and track and also played basketball in his first two years of high school.

In a more serious vein (if you look hard, you can find it) Greg held the office of class treasurer, junior year, and secretary in his sophomore year.

May
Boy and Girl
of the Month

Nina DeFelice

Chosen as the final girl of the month was Nina DeFelice. She is distinguished from other people by her unique "Nose for News." Her findings were made known to others through her job as editor of the Crosier. The newspaper was the best Kelley has had so far.

Being editor would seem to have been enough for the average person but Nina was anything but average. Besides the job of editoring, Nina was on the Senior Board, was an inter-city representative for Student Council, and a member of the Anchor Club, Pep Club, and Little Theater. Nina also maintained a A-B average and was a member of the National Honor Society.

"Of Mice and Men's" Curly, Jack Allen, was this month's outstanding senior. His interest in dramatics was further shown in his office of Vice-President of the Little Theater. Besides his flair for the dramatic, Jack also contributed outstandingly to the field of track. High jumping was his main talent. As a member of the Senior Board, Jack helped to launch many senior activities. His Prom after party was a tremendous success. Jack will attend O.S.U. where he will major in business.
